JULIA CREEK RV SITE

McKinlay Shire Council is proud to offer a free RV Site for self-contained RVs and Caravans (toilet and shower on board) for 96 hours. The effective running of this site is not possible without Volunteer Camp Hosts. Each year from April to September, McKinlay Shire Council collates a roster of hosts. All you need is a self-contained van, people skills and a friendly and professional demeanor. In return, Council can offer:

- Free camping for the period of your stay
- Free Bush Dinners
- Free generator and fuel
- Free entry to see the dunnart at the Julia Creek Visitor Information Centre
